2017 St. John Vianney Summer Camp Newsletter

Week 5
July 10-14
Theme of the Week
Lions, Tigers, & More "Oh My"

SJV girl campers enjoying the field trip.

Campers started off the week with another visit to the church for a lesson on the virtue of Faith and the mosaic associated with it. On Tuesday campers prepared their own personal pizzas which they enjoyed for lunch. After lunch, the 7-12 year old campers walked to the Nottingham neighborhood pool where they swam for the remainder of the afternoon. Campers prayed the rosary on Wednesday in the chapel along with their regular camp day activities including arts & crafts and outdoor recreation. The 4-6 year old campers had a "Wacky Water Day" on Thursday while the 7-12 year old campers were enjoying a Main Street Theatre performance of "The Wizard of Oz" and Double Dave's Pizza. Ms. Monkey paid a visit to Camp SJV on Friday bringing with them 3 monkeys that campers had the chance to interact with. After a brief Q&A session the campers got the chance to take individual pictures with the monkeys. Campers finished off the week with ice cream and skit performances where the 7-8 boys were awarded the performance of the week trophy.
