

Camp SJV Weekly Buzz

2016 St. John Vianney Summer Camp Newsletter

Week 7

July 25 - 29

Theme of the Week:
Super Heroes

This week at Camp SJV was full of Hero themed activities including arts & crafts, bible stories, costumes, story time and coloring pages for the 4-6 year olds, and much more. Deputy Payne was the guest speaker on Tuesday. He was gracious enough to talk with all of the campers about safety, and answer questions about his profession. On Wednesday, the 7-12 year old campers had their final prayer service of the summer where they read scripture, sang, and prayed. The 4-6 year old campers had their last Wacky Water Day on Thursday before watching The Incredibles in the afternoon. While the younger campers were busy at camp, the 7-12 year old campers took a field trip to Main Event where they played unlimited video games, laser-tag, pool, and bowling for the duration of their visit. On Friday, campers came to camp dressed as their favorite super heroes. Father T.J. Dolce spoke with all of the campers on Friday about the life, and responsibilities, of a priest and how priests are super heroes too. Camp SJV finished the week off with skits and the trophy presentation ceremony where the 7-8 boys and 4-5 girls each walked away with the prize.
