Week 3
June 20-24

Theme of the Week:
America's Pastime

The week began for the 7-12 year old campers with another Camp SJV Olympics competition. They toiled against each other in another heated kickball tournament where the 7-8 girls came out on top. On Tuesday, the older campers took another trip to the Nottingham pool where they swam, played ball, and slid down the water slide. The 7-12 year old campers then celebrated America's Pastime on Wednesday with a trip to see the Houston Astros in action. Thankfully the Astros kept their momentum rolling with another win against the Los Angeles Angels. While they were away the 4-6 year old campers cooled off with a Wacky Water Day. They also had fun selecting removable tattoos and playing with sidewalk chalk and bubbles. On Thursday, the campers held a prayer service where they collected and prayed intentions, read scripture, and sang together. Camp SJV held its annual "Birthday Bash" on Friday. The day began with karaoke sessions for all of the age groups. The campers then ate grilled hot dogs for lunch before they took turns taking swings at a piñata. After the piñatas had perished, and all the candy was claimed the campers then enjoyed cake and ice cream. We finished the day off with our weekly skit performances and presentation ceremony. This week the 7-8 and 4-5 girls came away with the trophy and torch respectively due to their excellent behavior and strong performances in our Olympic games.
