2015 St. John Vianney Summer Camp Newsletter

Week 6

July 20th-24th

Theme of the Week

"All-Star Week"

For the final two weeks of camp, we ask the Campers & Parents to participate in our annual Camp Food Drive benefiting our Food Pantry here at SJV. Please bring a non-perishable items; such as: Canned Soups, Canned Vegetables, Beans, Pasta, Diapers, Toothpaste and more. Please help us, HELP OTHERS!

We began our star filled week with retro day where campers of all ages came dressed in their favorite 70's and 80's attire. On Tuesday the 7-12 year old campers took a trip to ITZ where they chowed down at a pizza buffet and played unlimited arcade games/rides for the duration of their visit. We kept this action packed week going with our second annual Game Show Extravaganza on Wednesday where all our age groups competed in several game shows, hosted by our very own Jack Kill, including Jeopardy, Family Feud, and Don't Forget the Lyrics. On Thursday, our 7-12 year old campers went on a second field trip for the week. We went to Memorial City Mall to see the newest entry in the "Despicable Me" franchise "Minions" and followed it up with lunch at Fuddruckers. On Friday, we celebrated everyone's birthday with our Birthday Bash. We enjoyed piñatas, karaoke, and birthday cake.
