2019 St. John Vianney Summer Camp Newsletter

Week 5
July 8-12

Theme of the Week:
The Mighty jungle

Campers celebrated the return of camp on Monday with "Crazy Hair Day." Campers fashioned their hair into all manner of wacky hair styles which included Mohawks, spikes, crazy colors and more. The 7-12 year old campers made their final trek to the Westchester Pool on Tuesday, for an afternoon of fun in the water. While the swimmers were away, the campers who stayed back enjoyed the activities of a normal camp day including arts & crafts, court time, and indoor games. After enjoying a day of Jungle themed activities on Wednesday, the older campers visited the Chapel and prayed the Stations of the Cross. The 4-6 year old campers had a Water Day on Thursday while the older campers were away at Altitude Trampoline Park in Katy. Ms. Monkey's Emporium visited the camp on Friday with three Capuchin monkeys. Campers were able to interact with and get a picture with two adult Capuchins and one 6 week old baby monkey named Lola. Campers then performed the skits which they created and rehearsed themselves throughout the week in the AV Room. The 8-9 boys came away with the "Performance of the Week" award for their performance on this week's Fruit of the Spirit, goodness.
