Week 6

July 15-19

Theme of the Week:
IN THE GAME

Camp SJV

Campers began the week with a lesson on faithfulness before enjoying a day filled with outdoor games and activities on Jersey Day. The 7-12 year old campers prayed the Rosary together in the chapel on Tuesday. The 4-6 year old campers had the campus all to themselves on Wednesday while the older campers were enjoying a "Super Splash Day" at the Sugar Land Skeeters game. The 7-12 year old campers had to wake-up extra early on Thursday for their trip to the George Bush Library & Museum in College Station. The older campers then hopped back on the bus and traveled to Brenham for a tour of the Blue Bell Creameries followed by a scoop of their choice of ice cream. While the older campers were away, the 4-6 year old campers had a Wacky Fun Day which included an indoor obstacle course and bingo. Campers of all ages competed in "The Ultimate Gameshow Challenge" on Friday. They split up into teams and battled in heated games of Jeopardy, Family Feud, and more. After the games were completed, campers performed their weekly skits, and the 7-8 girls walked away with the "Performance of the Week Award" for their rendition of Romeo and Juliet.
