2019 St. John Vianney Summer Camp Newsletter

Week 7 & 8

July 22 - August 2

Theme of the Week:
Lights, Camera, Action!
& *Mystery Week

Week 7 kicked-off with "Ugly Tie Day." Campers each decorated their own ugly tie during their craft period, and competed to see who could make the ugliest tie. On Tuesday, the 7-12 year old campers visited the Chapel for a prayer service where they reflected, read scripture, and voiced prayer intentions. Campers from ages 4 to 12 participated in a memorable camp-wide talent show on Wednesday. A big thank you goes out to all of this year's participants for making the talent show a success. The 4-6 year old campers had their final Water Day of the summer on Thursday while the 7-12 year old campers visited Momentum Rock Climbing in Katy. Circus Chickendog visited the camp on Friday and brought with them 5 enthusiastic performing dogs. The 9-12 girls finally secured their first "Performance of the Week" award for their skit on the fruit of the spirit, gentleness.
