Dear friends in Christ:

In the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, we have 1.7 million Catholics who are served by 446 priests. Of these, 196 are diocesan priests. 147 are active and 49 are retired. So far this year, three diocesan priests have died, five others retired and one man has withdrawn from the active priesthood. We also have two priests currently serving past the retirement age of 75. If we had the priests, we could easily open 15 new parishes today and not adversely affect any of our existing parishes. That does not include all the large parishes that are understaffed. The archdiocese has 146 parishes. St. John Vianney is the 14th largest parish in the archdiocese with 5084 registered families and we have two assigned priests, Fr. Richard and myself. Fr. Chuck, Fr. Curto and Msgr. Anderson all have other full time assignments but generously assist us. In June, Cardinal DiNardo ordained two men to the priesthood. Fr. Mark Hebert is assigned to Sacred Heart Church in Conroe and Fr. Thuc Nguyen is assigned to St. Thomas More Church with Fr. Clark. We will begin the school year with twelve new men entering the seminary for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. These numbers are not good. At best, one out of four men who enter the seminary eventually make it to ordination.

On a positive note, our parish has six men studying for the priesthood, three for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston (David Ramirez, An Vo and Josh Svajda), one for the Diocese of Austin (Michael Noriega) and two for religious orders (Phuc Vo and Paolo Puccini). We have one young woman in formation for religious life (Sr. Alex Zaldivar) and one young woman becoming a lay missionary to serve on college campuses (Mollie Murphy). On an even more positive note, Deacon Paolo is being ordained to the priesthood this month for the Paulist Fathers. Please keep soon-to-be Fr. Paolo and all of these young men and women in your daily prayers. Pray that they may have the courage and the zeal to live for Jesus every day and be happy and joyful in their vocations. Pray as well that many more young men and women from St. John Vianney will seek to give their lives to God through a priestly or religious vocation. While our numbers in the seminary are small and insufficient for our current and future needs, we have some very good men studying in the seminary. Quality beats quantity every time. One good priest on fire for the Lord can do far more than ten mediocre, lukewarm priests. That said, it would be nice to have both quality and quantity.

How do we get more vocations? Well, vocations are everybody's business! We all have to pray, encourage and invite young people to consider a religious vocation. Priestly and religious vocations do not drop from the sky. Vocations come from families. We have to encourage and support families to be strong in their Catholic Faith. Of course, strong Catholic families come from strong Catholic marriages, where couples live their faith together. We can help vocations by encouraging and supporting couples in their marriages. We can help vocations by encouraging families to live their Catholic Faith boldly and joyfully. We do that by our words, our actions and our attitudes. Yes, the shrinking number of priests and religious is a challenge that we have to face. But so is the challenge to support and strengthen good Catholic marriages and families. With God's grace, we, His Church, can do this. During this time when marriages and families are under attack and great pressure from so many directions, we must respond with determination, generosity and zeal.

Speaking of inviting and asking, I am asking our young men to consider the priesthood and I am asking our young women to consider following Jesus as a consecrated religious sister. Think about it. Pray about it. Parents, ask your children to pray about a vocation and encourage them. What are the qualities for a religious vocation? Well, you have to love God, first and foremost. A generous heart and a moral life are also necessary.

A desire to serve is also essential. The human qualities include a healthy and balanced personality, intelligence and a good work ethic. No one ever enters the seminary or convent ready for ordination or final vows. That is why there are years of formation and preparation to develop the spiritual, human, intellectual and pastoral qualities. Often times, young people do not consider a religious vocation because they think they are not worthy. They are absolutely right, they are not worthy. That, however, is not the issue. The truth of the matter is that none of us are worthy, but God still calls us and uses us. If he only called the worthy, there would be no vocations at all, ever! Entering the seminary does not mean immediate ordination, it means discerning a call. Few people get married on their first date! When God calls, He gives all that we need. What God calls us to is a life of sacrifice and service and a life of happiness and fulfillment. What we have to do is say "Yes!" If you think you may have vocation or just have questions, please call me, Fr. Richard or Fr. Chuck. We will be happy to speak with you.

In Pace Christi,
Fr. Ray

Reading 2 ROM 8:26-27
Gospel MT 13:24-43 OR 13:24-30

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

SOCIAL SERVICE MINISTRY

Intention:

May mothers receive ongoing care and support in raising their children.

Prayers: Our Father, 3 Hail Mary, Glory Be

Reflection: While we often think of pregnancy as culminating in the birth of child, we know that the journey is only just beginning. While motherhood brings with it many joys and blessings, it also involves challenges and difficulties. In raising their children and dedicating themselves to their families, mothers participate in a type of "daily heroism," one for which they "do not always find support in the world around them" (Evangelium vitae 86).

Providing and caring for children as a single mother includes additional hardships. Sadly, today, one in four children are being raised without a father. Certainly, there are many reasons this might occur in any given circumstance. However, it is also true that in a culture that largely rejects the Church's teachings on marriage, life and sexuality, women and their children are often disproportionately impacted.

In the midst of this reality, the Church is called to be a beacon of light, hope and support. May we respond to this call, individually and communally, to surround mothers with assistance and support as they lovingly care for their children.

SAINT OF THE DAY - JULY 25

Saint James the Apostle's Story

This James is the brother of John the Evangelist. The two were called by Jesus as they worked with their father in a fishing boat on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus had already called another pair of brothers from a similar occupation: Peter and Andrew. "He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him" (Mark 1:19-20).

James was one of the favored three who had the privilege of witnessing the Transfiguration, the raising to life of the daughter of Jairus, and the agony in Gethsemani.

Two incidents in the Gospels describe the temperament of this man and his brother. Saint Matthew tells that their mother came—Mark says it was the brothers themselves—to ask that they have the seats of honor in the kingdom. "Jesus said in reply, 'You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?' They said to him, 'We can'" (Matthew 20:22). Jesus then told them they would indeed drink the cup and share his baptism of pain and death, but that sitting at his right hand or left was not his to give—it "is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father" (Matthew 20:23b). It remained to be seen how long it would take to realize the implications of their confident "We can!"

The other disciples became indignant at the ambition of James and John. Then Jesus taught them all the lesson of humble service: The purpose of authority is to serve. They are not to impose their will on others, or lord it over them. This is the position of Jesus himself. He was the servant of all; the service imposed on him was the supreme sacrifice of his own life.

On another occasion, James and John gave evidence that the nickname Jesus gave them—"sons of thunder"—was an apt one. The Samaritans would not welcome Jesus because he was on his way to hated Jerusalem. "When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?' Jesus turned and rebuked them..." (Luke 9:54-55).

James was apparently the first of the apostles to be martyred. "About that time King Herod laid hands upon some members of the church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he proceeded to arrest Peter also" (Acts 12:1-3a).

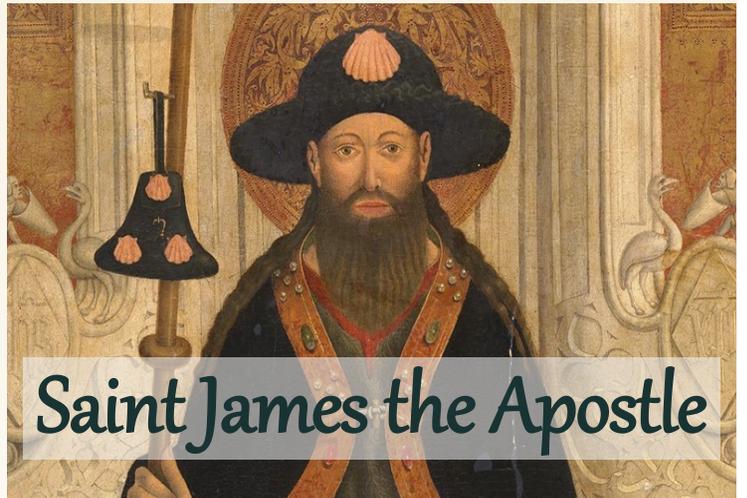

This James, sometimes called James the Greater, is not to be confused with James the Lesser or with the author of the Letter of James and the leader of the Jerusalem community.

Reflection

The way the Gospels treat the apostles is a good reminder of what holiness is all about. There is very little about their virtues as static possessions, entitling them to heavenly reward. Rather, the great emphasis is on the Kingdom, on God's giving them the power to proclaim the Good News. As far as their personal lives are concerned, there is much about Jesus' purifying them of narrowness, pettiness, fickleness.
