Women's Lenten Day of Reflection

February 24, 10am - 2:30pm; Daily Mass at 9am

Check-in begins at 8:30am, on the Activity Center court

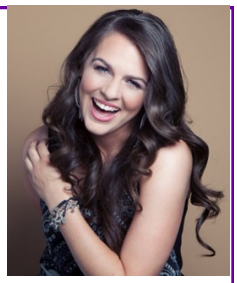
Seeking the Holy Spirit in the Desert of Lent

The spiritual desert is uncomfortable by design. It strips away distractions. It exposes weaknesses. It reveals what we rely on besides (or in place of) God. Jesus entered that space full of the Holy Spirit, and it was precisely there that His identity and mission were clarified.

Spiritual growth requires more than willpower. It requires surrender. The desert is not about deprivation for its own sake. It is about dependence and direction. It is about clearing away whatever competes with God, so that He can take deeper root in us. We then listen for His promptings and trust that direction — even if it feels uncomfortable. But sometimes we are not sure of what we are hearing or who is saying it. Is it self-talk, is it coming from the evil one, or is it the Spirit? Tori offers guidance on how we discern the Spirt working in our lives.

A Day of Reflection and Renewal facilitated by

Tori Harris



Tori is a singer, songwriter, author, and speaker. Her first book, Holy Spirit 101, is presently the only Catholic curriculum with ecclesial approval. Tori has toured with artists such as Audio Adrenalin, 1 Girl Nation, and appeared multiple times with Cardinal Dolan at various March for Life events at St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York. Tori has been featured as a guest on Sirius XM, EWTN, Catholic TV, Relevant Radio, and interviewed alongside Matt Maher, Ike Ndolo, and Audrey Assad.
