FAQ’S

Q: Is this a retreat?

A: No. This is a social trip, not a retreat. There will be Mass on New Year’s Eve, prayer, and a few other Catholic based activities.

Q: Can my child snowboard instead of skiing?

A: Yes! It is the same price for skiing or snowboarding.

Q: What if my child doesn’t want to ski or snowboard?

A: Unfortunately, they will not be able to go on the trip.
There are lessons available for beginners.

Q: Can my child bring their own skis?

A: Yes, however there will not be a discount.

Q: Will there be any free time?

A: Yes! There will be at least a couple hours of free time every day.

Q: Will they go tubing?

A: No. Unfortunately, there are no tubing areas nearby.

FAQ'S CONTINUED

Q: How are rooms assigned? Are boys and girls together?

A: Teens will be able to select their roommates; however, we reserve the right to decide who is together. Boys and girls will be on different floors.

Q: Will there be other activities besides skiing?

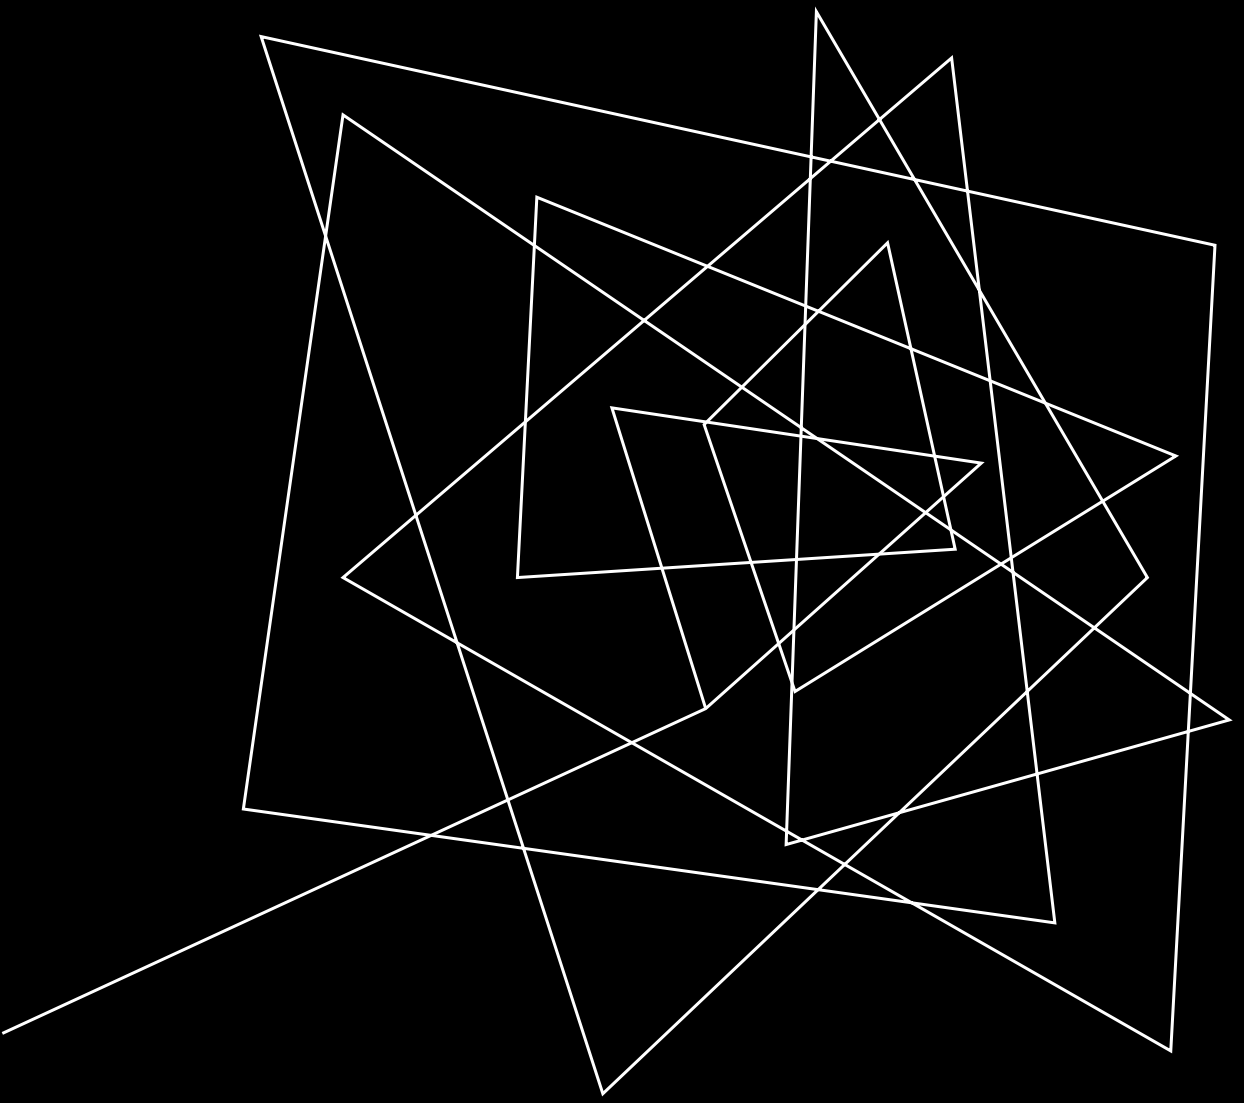

A: Yes, we will have evening games and a New Year's Eve gathering (this could be inside or outside)

Q: Are cell phones allowed?

A: Yes! In fact, we recommend bringing them for communication with chaperones.

Q: What should we pack?

A: A packing list will be sent out before the trip. Make sure your teen has a ski jacket, ski pants, goggles, and gloves.
